Dear Kelly,

I'M a keen member of a cycling club and have enjoyed the company of other members of the group – all like-minded men – on our journeys into the hills for several years.

journeys into the hills for several years.

Last month, after a committee meeting lasting all of five seconds, we accepted two new recruits. Our new members are stunning 19-year-old girls with huge tits.

On their first ride, all the fellas were stunned and disappointed because they arrived with a tandem and they refused to split up. And I found out why when we went for another ride last week. I spent most of the trip pedalling behind them gazing at the sight of their firm, sweaty arses and wishing my face was their saddle. I lusted after them all day and fantasised about having a threesome with them, so much so that I had an enormous stiffy when we stopped at a tea shop.

But what a disappointment I got when I went to the toilet for a quick wank.

As I came out of the cubicle I spotted the pair of them at the back of the toilet fingering and licking each other out.

They're obviously raving lesbos. What a waste.

I had unexpected play while wife was away

Dear Kelly,

I'M a 27-year-old married father-of-two and last weekend I was left with the kids as my missus had gone off to visit some relatives.

I decided to go to a holiday park. Once we were there the kids, aged five and seven, were in their element and I noticed that they had made new friends.

I was sitting on a bench and they had made new friends.

I was sitting on a bench and the other kids' mother – a greatlooking bird – sat down next to me and started chatting.

It turned out she was in the something rotten and as a result we weat it like rabbits for the best part of half and hour, frantically bonking until we were thoroughly breathless.

Climaxed

During that time she must have had three almighty climaxes and I shot my load twice – something that I'd never managed to do before in such a short managed to do before in such a short space of time.

Now she's really been bitten by the bug and doesn't want sex unless she spanks me first.

Last week she surprised my when I got home late from work by wearing a load of dominatrix gear she'd bought online, and showing me a range of vicious looking equipment she'd also picked out. She asked me if I would let her use her belt on me. I agreed but told her to be careful and not to do it too hard. She told me to stand facing the wall and she started to whip not only my bare buttocks but all up my back too.

This hurt so I turned to tell her to go easy a bit.

I was shocked at what I saw Her face.

I was shocked at what I saw. Her face I was shocked at what I saw. Her face had completely changed and she had a cruel look. She screamed at me to get back in position so she could continue to punish me until she decided to stop. She warned me that if I refused she would dump me and throw me out and then I'd be homeless.

I want to warn guys to be careful of what they introduce their girlfriends to as it could all go wrong.

Somehow in the traint pain tank.

Into the back of my car and the damage was fairly extensive.

The driver, who was older than her cute passenger, was very apologetic. While checking the damage, she bent over and showed off her pert backside.

I was soon fully revved up and she immediately noticed my throbbing gearstick.

She gave me a kiss, grabbed my crotch then led me into the nearby field and soon I was rear-ending her.

Then she clamped her lips around my shiny helmet intil I shot my love-juice over her heaving breasts.

As we returned to our cars I could hear a horn blasting, and I assumed it was the cars behind getting impatient.

Then I saw that it was my mate having his dick serviced by the younger blonde, and his knee kept hitting the horn.

I was shocked as my bird said that her daughter was doing it all wrong – and she stepped in and brought him off with her own gob.

The jam cleared soon after, but as we drove home I realised that we hadn't swapped insurance details.

Now I have a whopping repair bill to pay.

Dear Kelly,

I'VE just come back from a I'VE JUST COME BACK From a holiday in the Greek islands, where I met a stunning local girl who shagged like a rabbit. She was a waitress and I fancied her as soon as I saw her great curves.

There was one problem - my fiancée was with me. But after two days we had a blazing row and she took a flight home.

That night I rushed to the restaurant and chatted up the Greek beauty.

At closing time, I offered to walk her to her apartment, but on the way we stopped off on the beach.

It didn't take long to get naked on a lounger. I was in heaven as I fingered her as she played with my throbber.

Then we rolled onto the sand, where I slipped in my penis and began riding her for all I was worth. She screamed in what I thought was ecstasy as I came to climax.

But when I'd calmed down she explained to me that my dick was covered in sand and she had been in agony as I pumped backwards and forwards. I never bothered to see her again, because the next day my willy was red-raw and of no use to anvone!

SPORT STARTS HERE WITH RACING

TOUGH ENOUGH sets a very tall standard for the others to aim at in the British Racing EBF Novice Stakes at Nottingham on Wednesday.

James Tate's youngster only has one run in the formbook but it was a performance that was stacked with promise.

Sent to Newbury for his initial foray, he beat all bar Owen Burrows' odds-on favourite Lajooje and there was a length between them.

The son of Showcasing was sent off 22-1 which shows two things: he possibly was not showing that much at home, but also connections of the Wednesday.

but also connections of the others all felt they had something to play with.

Winner

The fact Tough Enough showed up so well is hugely promising and one of the newcomers is going to have to really know their job to get the better of him. better of him.
Two of the last four winners

Two of the last four winners of this event have been Marcus Tregoning's Mohaather, who went on to win a Sussex Stakes, and Inver Park, a Royal Ascot winner this season for George Boughey.

Triomphe-winning duo of Sir Mark Prescott and Luke Morris can strike in the much calmer waters of the Join Racing TV Now Fillies' Handicap with Cappoquin.

Runner-up in her last three races off the same mark, this daughter of Muhaarar was nudged up 1lb for her most recent effort.

Strangely for a champion sprinter, Muhaarar's progeny tend to stay really well, and stamina is certainly this filly's forte.

Balding could also be in the mark with Syndicated in the first division of the Unibet/ British Stallion Studs EBF Novice Stakes at Kempton.

Having cost 450,000 guineas as a son of Dubawi out of J Wonder, unsurprisingly he was sent off favourite for his Newmarket debut but looked all at sea.

He was beaten even further

He was beaten even further on his next outing at Ascot but, dropped in class at Wolverhampton, he put his experience to good use and won well. He can defy a penalty.

Sea Gifted can put her experience to good use now she is sporting a hood in the Unibet Horserace Betting Operator Of The Year Maiden Fillies' Stakes.

Of The Year Maiden rillies Stakes. Asister to the classy Raheen House, William Haggas had probably been expecting a bit more of her to date.

Ability

She is gradually improving with racing and has earned a mark of 73 from three outings, but it seems noteworthy Haggas is staying in maidens rather than go for a handicap. MOEEN Ali says England's series win over Pakistan proved how "dangerous" they will be at this month's Twenty20 World Cup.

Moeen has deputised for regular skipper Jos Buttler throughout a historic seven-match trip to Karachi and Lahore and finished up with a Lahore and finished up with a trophy in his hands.

The tourists breezed to a 67-run success to claim a 4-3 victory, posting 209 for three then choking off the reply at 142 for eight.

Over the course of the visit, Harry Brook has emerged as a potential superstar in the making, the returning Alex Hales and Phil Salt have established competition for the opening position and the seam attack has functioned impressively throughout.

And while Moeen is confident about what lies ahead at the World Cup, he ranks world number ones India and hosts Australia as front-runners.
"We're really happy to win this series and we go to Australia in a really good position, but I don't think we're favourites for the World Cup," Moeen said. "If I'm honest I don't feel that way at all, but I know we are a very dangerous team to play and other teams will fear playing us. But I still think Australia and India are the two favourites."

But I still think Australia and India are the two favourites."
England went into the last two games against Pakistan with no margin for error, trailing 3-2 and needing back-to-back wins to come through victorious.

That provided just the kind of high stakes cricket they wanted before a major competition, but Moeen felt calmer heads during two second-innings collapses could have seen them cruise.

"We were disappointed in the end, because looking back I think if we'd been really on it we'd probably have won 6-1. We were disappointed with those two chases in particular," he said.

"But the series has been an amazing one, to be 3-3 and then to win the last one is great. When we look back at the newer guys in particular, and how they've played, Ben Duckett and Brooky have been outstanding almost have been outstanding almost every game.

"We've had Woody and Woakesy coming back after long injuries and how we changed the team often but still managed to play well and win was incredible."

While Pakistan will rue a defeat at home, England's first bilateral visit to the country since 2005 has been a roaring success off the field. The games have been well attended, well supported and the entertainment good, with plenty of glowing reviews about the experience from the camp.

For Moeen, who has deep family ties in Pakistan, it meant more than most.

"The hospitality is one of the

"The hospitality is one of the best in the world, people look after you really well and are so nice," he said.

"Everything that comes with playing in Pakistanisoutstanding. Even the opposition players and coaches have been looking after us sending messages saying "if us, sending messages saying 'if you need anything, we're here'."

Risk

Head coach Matthew Mott says England's tour of Pakistan has helped him settle on a first-choice XI for the Twenty20 World Cup, with a heavy hint that Harry Brook has forced his way in.

Ben Stokes, Liam Livingstone and Chris Jordan all missed the trip but will join up in Australia later this week, while captain Jos Buttler acted as an observer in

He was the tourists' top run scorer with 238, boasted a sizzling strike-rate of 163.01 and also led

"We've looked at the that first XI quite a bit...we're pretty close. There's always a bit of tinkering, form comes into it," Mott said.

"There's a few going home now and a few coming out, when we get to Australia it will become more apparent what those particular roles are.

"Obviously Harry Brook has had some really good hit outs and done well. He's looked really composed out there and seems to just pick the right times to go for his boundaries.

"There's been a lot of moving parts in this tour but we'll welcome back some world class players and we hit the shores of Australia in a couple of days."

LIVERPOOL manager Jurgen Klopp insists even greats like Cristiano Ronaldo and Lionel Messi are not immune from confidence issues as he seeks to find a solution to his side's inconsistency.

Saturday's 3-3 draw at home to Brighton, having gone from 2-0 down to 3-2 up, was an example of the wider malaise which is affecting the team.

"People can ask how could it happen that these players are not full of confidence?" said the German.

"He was for ages the best player in the world and now it is not going his way and it is not exactly the same. That happens to all of us.

"Lionel Messi played last season where it was not exactly the same because these kind of things are really important to all of us and you have to work for it.

"You have to take the little things to take a step in the right direction and be really ready for the moment when it is back and that is what we are doing."

Klopp has pointed to the fact they have not been able to build momentum due to interruptions in their schedule due to factors outside of their control.

"No, we don't have the time. Yes, we can improve. We can play exactly the same and do better, that is already a fix," he added.

Confidence

"Patience is not 100 per cent the right word but we have to be patient to do the right thing again, and again and again until it works out again and then we will be fine. "We cannot always start something completely new but if we can help the boys with a way to defend differently we will do that. "Usually in a time when you win a lot of games usually not everything is going your way but there is no impact – we may have made a mistake but no one has it in their mind. That is different in the moment.
"We have to increase the amount

we have to increase the amount of good moments and decrease the amount of not-so-good moments until you can make mistakes again and they are not as impactful as they are at the moment."
